“May God bless the staff of Sadguru- I can see! “

Ram Singh is a shepherd. He has just a few goats and also caters his services to other community members of the village for grazing their cows and buffaloes to the pastures in the valley. Since last nine months, he was having trouble in locating his cattle. He started losing his business, meager as it may be. His livelihood was in danger.

Later, a school boy of his village came running to him saying, “Kaka, Sadguru people are here at our tehsil, Sumerpur. We can take the cart to go there and get you checked.” Ram Singh then found other mates from his village who were going to the same camp for the same purpose. This gave him further encouragement. From the camp, they were brought to the base-hospital. Readily he got his cataract operated and happily he came back to his village with his other friends.

“I didn’t expect such a speedy process and so genuine concern among the staff. Thanks to all of them. I am happy.”
